DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action in the response dated 5/15/06 is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
- I. Claims 1, 3, 7-15, 17-29, and 41-43, drawn to an absorbent structure having a fluid intake rate of at least about 0.5 centimeters per second or greater, classified in class 604, subclass 378.
  - II. Claims 30-40, drawn to an absorbent article comprising a body side liner, outer cover, and absorbent structure having a fluid intake rate of at least about 0.5 centimeters per second or greater, classified in class 604, subclass 378.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

3. Inventions I and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because it does not require any of the following: a specific thickness (1,3,7-15), least one layer that undergoes anisotropic expansion (41), a second layer having a specific basis weight and first and second layers having specific expansion percentages (17-29), first and second layers having specific expansion percentages and further comprising a first layer having a specific basis weight (42) or at least one layer that is elastomeric (43). The subcombination has separate utility such as by itself as a feminine hygiene product, surgical tool, or cleaning device or it could be used as part of any combination requiring a thin absorptive layer.

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. In the event that applicant elects Group, the claims are further subject to an election of species. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

- a. Species a. A single-layered absorbent structure having a specific thickness or comprising least one layer that undergoes anisotropic expansion.
- b. Species b. A multi-layered absorbent structure comprising first and second layers, wherein one layer has a specific basis weight and both layers have specific expansion percentages.

2. The species are independent or distinct because, as described above, one species requires a single-layer while another requires multiple layers; therefore, the species are mutually exclusive, and therefore would result in divergent searches (also see MPEP 806.04(f)).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none of the claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

3. A telephone call was not made to the applicant to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement due to the complexity of the election/restriction requirement.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

Art Unit: 3761

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Keshia Gibson whose telephone number is (571) 272-7136. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 8:30 a.m. - 6 p.m., out every other Friday.
